

4200 Northside Parkway, N.W., Bldg. 12, Atlanta, GA 30327-3049
404-233-1700 www.afcorealty.com

Ingram “Gram” S. Smith, Sales Associate

Ingram S. Smith, known to many of his friends as Gram, joined AFCO in 2008. Ingram’s principal focus is on landlord and tenant representation of office space. Ingram implements strategic financial based planning in an innovative and effective manner in order to meet his clients’ requirements.

Ingram is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College, where he earned a B.A. in Economics. While at Hampden-Sydney, Ingram was the president of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was also elected chairman of the Inter Fraternity Council and served as the representative speaker for the Class of 2006 at commencement ceremonies.

Ingram was born and raised in Atlanta, where he attended Woodward Academy. Ingram spends his free time traveling, reading, and being outdoors.

Ingram is dedicated to bringing a superior knowledge of the market to every transaction and has earned a reputation for his unwavering dedication to meeting his clients’ needs.

